

SHE SUES INFORMER COHEN.

He and Two Tenderloin Policemen
Accused of Conspiracy.

Cohen Was One of "Barney"
Martin's Henchmen.

Sarah Brown, a negro, has brought suit for $5,000 each against Isaac C. Cohen, or Cohen, as he prefers to call himself, and Policemen Cornelius Callahan and James J. Savage, of the West Thirtieth street station, for conspiracy and persecution.

Cohen was one of Police Justice "Barney" Martin's henchmen in the old Seventh District.

Mrs. Brown, who had some money, swore in court that she supported Cohen for seventeen years. When he left her he had $5,000 of her money, for which she sued him. Then Cohen, who is a police-court hanger-on, threatened to use his "pull" and have her arrested unless she withdrew the suit. She refused, and then Cohen got Callahan and Savage to arrest her for keeping a disorderly house. He appeared as informer. She was held, and later was indicted by the Grand Jury, when the facts were laid before a trial jury she was promptly acquitted.

The policemen have asked Corporation Counsel Clark to defend them in the civil action for damages. At the same time they were acting in the line of duty when they made the arrest, the Corporation Counsel for the Police Department, must act. He has assigned Assistant Corporation Counsel A. Sweetser to the case. Callahan and Savage are said to be friends of the informer, Cohen.

DUEL OVER A FALSE WIFE.

Injured Husband May Die of Wounds Inflicted by Her Lover.

(By Associated Press.)

BOURBON, Ind., March 14.—About three weeks ago, Nicholas of La Paz, a county officer, eloped with Mrs. Mollie Metz, a handsome woman of twenty-four, and wife of James Metz, a wealthy merchant of La Paz, a small town, fourteen miles north of this city. It was supposed Nicholas had gone West, and Metz was distressed. On Monday night on Monday morning Metz learned that Nicholas was at Clinton, a village twenty miles northeast of here.

Metz went to Clinton, found Nicholas, and asked where his wife was. Nicholas answered him by a blow in the face. It was agreed between the men to fight a duel, knives being the weapons used. The spot selected for the duel was on the banks of the Yellow River, between Clinton and Leeburg, about ten miles from this city. The duel took place last evening at 8 o'clock.

Nicholas was by far the heavier and stronger man, and Metz could do nothing against him. Nicholas stabbed Metz twice, once in the breast and once in the left arm, and then, throwing away the knife, attacked him with his fists. Metz fell exhausted, and Nicholas was taken by hunters in the woods. He was found by his home in La Paz, and is now in a critical condition, and will probably die. Nicholas has gone to Canada. Metz's wife is in La Paz.

SHE CARRIED A PISTOL.

Lena Johnson, Highly Excited, Arrested on the Bowery.

Lena Johnson, a well-dressed woman, living at 384 Bowery, was arraigned in the Tombs Police Court to-day on two charges, one of intoxication and the other of carrying concealed weapons.

Policeman Sheehan, of the Mulberry street station, found her on the Bowery last night in a highly excited condition. She was well dressed, and as she acted suspiciously he placed her under arrest. When searched she was found to have a revolver, fully loaded, was found in a small hand bag.

In court this morning she cried bitterly. She speaks bad English and between this and her sobbing Justice Taintor had a hard time in understanding her story. She said she was married and up to two weeks ago lived in Thirtieth street. Her husband left her yesterday, she said, she took two glasses of beer and when she went out she recalled that she was robbed on the Bowery two weeks ago. She said she pulled the pistol on this account. The police are of the opinion that she was instructed to take her life, for she was instructed how to discharge it.

Justice Taintor held her in $100 bail for carrying the pistol and fined her $5 for intoxication.

HAD ONLY FOURTEEN CENTS.

But Bruno Expected to Reach
Worcester All Right.

Fourteen-year-old Bruno Rasch was committed in Harlem Police Court to-day to the care of the Gerry Society.

Policeman McDonald, of the West One Hundred and Fifty-second street police station, found the lad at 7 o'clock last evening walking along the Hudson River Railroad tracks at One Hundred and Forty-eighth street. The boy said he was on his way to Worcester, Mass., where his aunt lived.

In court this morning Bruno said he formerly lived at 211 East Eighty-seventh street. His father, a tailor, he said, frequently got drunk and abused him. Two months ago he carried a package to the Pennsylvania Railroad ferry for a Mrs. Andrews, who lives in Ashbury Park, and he offered a home to him. He accepted, but found Ashbury Park too slow, so last Saturday he got on the rear end of a passenger train and "beat" his way to Jersey City. He only had 14 cents when he started.

MANAGER PHILIPP ARRESTED

Charged with Permitting Children to Appear in a Play.

Adolph Philipp, the author, manager and chief actor of the German plays "The Corner Grocer of Avenue A" and "The Pawnbroker of the East Side," was arrested last night at the Germania Theatre by Agent Schmidt, of the Gerry Society, charged with allowing Emma said Freda Beck, fifteen and twelve years old, and Charles Metz, fourteen years old, to appear in the latter play.

Philipp would not allow the actors to go on the stage and the children refused. He admitted they were under age, and said he would take his chances of a fine. He alleged that the children do not act in places where they are not acting.

The boy walks across the stage shouting "Morning papers!" and the girls, it is alleged, do not say anything. They appear during the dissembling scene. Philipp was held for trial.

Wife Murder and Suicide.

(By Associated Press.)

RAVENNA, Neb., March 14.—John Brecht, a young German farmer living several miles south of here, shot his wife, a bride of four months, and then blew out his own brains with a shotgun. When found his wife was dead. He was found in a pool of blood, and a few minutes later he was dead. He had been a desperate struggle between Brecht and his wife before the shooting.

Texas Kills His Son.

(By Associated Press.)

CALDWELL, Tex., March 14.—Jim Robinson was breaking a horse near Meyer's, and when his father ordered him to quit drew a pistol. His father left, but pursuing a Winchester returned and killed him. The murderer surrendered, and was held in $500.

NURSED BY HIS FIANCEE.

William V. Draper in a Hospital
Suffering from Appendicitis.

William V. Draper, well known in New York society, who has been a patient for the past three weeks in St. Luke's hospital, where he was operated on on Feb. 24 for an extremely aggravated case of appendicitis, was in a slightly improved condition to-day.

Other physical complications made his condition a most serious one after the operation was performed, but within the past few days Mr. Draper has rallied. It will, however, be several weeks before he can be removed from the hospital.

A pretty little romance is attached to Mr. Draper's condition. A year ago he became engaged to Miss Hurry, a very charming young woman, also moving in the highest social circles, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund-Alby Hurry, of West Seventy-fifth street.

Their marriage was set for early in April of this year. When Mr. Draper was taken ill and went to the hospital, Miss Hurry, together with Mrs. Draper and Mr. Draper's aunt, took up their residence at the hospital. The fair fiancée was indefatigable in assisting in nursing her future husband during the operation and until all immediate danger was past.

Should Mr. Draper recover strength sufficiently, his marriage with Miss Hurry will be celebrated at the appointed time next month.

The Sunday World's Easter Number—next Sunday. Don't fail to get it. It will be splendidly illustrated and full of striking features and have an illuminated cover.

DECEIVED AND ABANDONED.

Pretty Marcellie Hubert Must Return to Her Native Country.

Sitting alone and apart from the other immigrants this morning, in the detention pen at Ellis Island, was a very pretty and attractive young French woman. Her name is Marcellie Hubert, twenty-three years old, and she is waiting to be sent back to Europe on the next outgoing French steamer.

Yesterday she was deserted by her lover, Romane Dzidzinski, a native of Russia, who said that he had lived five years in this country before. He is tall, fine-looking man, and spoke Russian, French and English equally well.

The woman has been before the Board of Special Inquiry on two occasions, and told conflicting stories about her past life. She claimed to be a native of the island of Lorraine, but Sunday, finally she admitted that for the past year and a half she had been living with her Russian companion in Paris, but that she expected to marry him when they reached America. She said she was born in Nevers, but had lived four years in Paris, where she was employed as a modiste.

She has 20 francs in money and quite an extensive wardrobe. The island authorities say that during her stay in Paris, she had been carrying on a very different life. She had been carrying on a very different life. She had been carrying on a very different life.

When Dzidzinski was brought before the Board, he admitted his relations with the young woman. He said he might marry her at some future date, but positively refused to do so at present. He said that he was able to support her, being a competent chef and able to earn $5 a month.

The woman was barred as having come here for immoral purposes, but her lover was admitted, although equally as guilty, on account of his prior residence here. He calmly abandoned the woman, and took the boat for New York.

ACCUSED HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Kramer Upbraided Him on the Street and Had Him Arrested.

Frank Kramer, of 194 Hamilton avenue, Brooklyn, was held in Jefferson Market Court to-day on complaint of his wife. She met him at Tenth avenue and Twenty-sixth street, last night and asked him why he had abandoned her a month ago in Brooklyn. Kramer turned and asked the woman, swearing at her and threatening to strike her. Policeman Baierick, of the Twentieth street station, arrested him.

At Jefferson Market Police Court the woman told her story. She said she left her husband to go to Europe. An abandonment warrant was out for him. He was held until the woman gets the warrant.

WON AND THEN GOT DRUNK.

Elizabeth Leonard Arrested After Having Reilly Sent to Prison.

Elizabeth Leonard, of 64 Macdonald street, was complainant at the Jefferson Market Court on March 1 against John Reilly, who, with four other men, she charged with criminal assault. The man was held for trial, and yesterday at General Sessions Court was sentenced to five years in prison.

The woman, it is said, celebrated the close of her case by getting drunk. Last night she was arrested by Policeman Murtha, and to-day was held for examination by Justice McMahon.

It is probable that the Justice will place before Judge Fitzgerald evidence which may cause the case to be reopened.

SCALDED HIS MOTHER.

Callahan Was Drunk and Demanded Money from Her.

Patrick Callahan, twenty-eight years old, of 132 Cherry street, was sent to the island for six months by Justice Noon, in the Essex Market Police Court, to-day.

Callahan got drunk last night, and when his mother refused to give him money he threw boiling water over her. He also attempted to assault his father, who summoned a policeman and caused his arrest.

FIVE CASES OF SMALL-POX.

Two of the Patients Applied at Hospitals for Treatment.

The Health Department reported five new cases of small-pox this morning. The patients were found last evening. They are Bernard Nabear, thirty-four years old, of 22 South Fifth avenue, who went to Chambers Street Hospital for treatment; Louis Hornberg, forty-three years old, of Division street, who went to the Essex Street Dispensary; Edith Fritz, four years old, of 250 Eighth avenue; Salvatore Garle, six months old, of 135 Mulberry street; John Philome, four months old, of 136 101st street.

Two of the patients, Nabear and Hornberg, were removed to Riverside Hospital, North Brother Island.

Taste

has lost lives. In former years people wouldn't take Cod-liver Oil on account of its bad taste. Now we have the Cream of Cod-liver Oil, which is palatable and easier on the digestive organs than plain oil, besides being more effective. Physicians, the world over, endorse it.

Scott's Emulsion

Don't be deceived by Substitutes!

Prepared by Scott & Bown, N. Y. All Druggists.

ANOTHER TUNNEL FIEND.

Dentist Adamson Fined for Insulting Women and Children.

Son of a Navy Officer and Says He Moves in Good Society.

Another tunnel fiend, who has been acting improperly to women and girls who have occasion to use the Thirty-eighth street entrance to the Park avenue tunnel, was arrested at 430 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He is Charles W. Adamson, a dentist, twenty-three years old, of 33 West Thirty-fourth street, and the son of an officer in the United States Navy.

Although four men have been caught at this part of the tunnel, acting in a similar manner, none of them was George B. Ward, the manager of the National Credit Insurance Company, at 115 Broadway, who was arrested at the same place of recommendation in his pocket from J. Roat Fassett to Thomas C. Platt. He is now awaiting sentence by Recorder Smyth at the Court of General Sessions.

Although these arrests were made and this part of the tunnel was kept under surveillance by the Police of Capt. Marjones, the manager of the National Credit Insurance Company, the complaints continued to pour in at the office of the Fourth Avenue Railroad Company and to the police.

Policeman Miller has been detailed, in citizen's attire, to keep a sharp lookout for the fiends.

About two weeks ago Miller caught a glimpse of Adamson in the very act of insulting a woman at the foot of the tunnel stairs, but the dentist was too feet-footed and got away. Adamson on seeing the officer approaching ran through the tunnel to Forty-second street and there disappeared in the Grand Central Depot.

Yesterday afternoon, at 430 o'clock, Miller was standing at the head of the stairs leading to the Thirty-eighth street entrance of the tunnel, when he saw a young and stylishly dressed woman, accompanied by a little girl, descend the stairs to board a Fourth Avenue car.

Directly behind them he saw the young dentist. Miller stepped quickly after him and caught him in the very act of insulting the woman. Adamson did not submit to arrest quietly. He tried to break away from the officer, and Miller was compelled to club him into submission. Adamson then pleaded to be let go, saying that he was well-connected and moved in the best society.

Justice Voorhis, in the Yorkville Police Court, to-day, fined Adamson $10, on the officer's statement.

SEVERING MARITAL BONDS.

Judge McAdam Once More Grinding on His Divorce Mill.

Judge McAdam in the Superior Court again started his divorce mill this morning. Only two persons, both women, asked that their matrimonial bonds be severed. The first case was that of Marie Fabst. She asked for alimony and counsel for a pending case of adultery against her husband, Kurtz Fabst, who is a dry-goods salesman. They were married on March 31, 1892, and have one child, a son, named Joseph Hanley, a Junior at 238 West Twenty-eighth street, and William Livingston, testified that Luitgen had been living at the above address with another woman, who passed as his wife. The decree was granted.

LIVELY IN ESSEX MARKET.

One Woman Had Fits and Another Dropped in a Faint.

Essex Market Police Court was rather lively this morning. One woman had fits and another fainted. The fits woman was Mary Keenan, who is homeless. She had the attack while in the women's prison box. She was taken to Gouverneur Hospital. She is thought to be suffering from alcoholism.

The fainting woman was Mable Brown, twenty-seven years old, of 102 East Forty-fourth street. Justice Koch had sentenced her to ten days on the island. Then she fell to the floor. Policeman Klein, who arrested her, carried her to the Bowery, said he had arrested her twice before, and that she is in the habit of fainting whenever sentence is pronounced.

STUDENT THIEF CAUGHT.

Prize Scholar and Record-Breaker Found Riffing Pockets.

CLAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 14.—Church circles here are agitated by a sensation at the Y. M. C. A. Building. For nearly two years the members have been suffering at the hands of a thief, who regularly went through their clothes in the dressing-rooms during the hours of gymnasium drills. Large sums of money and valuables were frequently taken, and all efforts to capture the robber proved futile.

A secret watch was finally kept on the dressing-rooms, and last night, while about forty students of Clawfordsville College were in the hall, the thief, who is a Freshman, was captured in the act of rifling pockets.

Shule is a prize student, standing at the head of his class, and is an officer in the college Y. M. C. A. He also holds the State record for several athletic events. He has acknowledged the crimes and will be expelled from college.

EVANCO LOST HIS ARM.

Says Dr. Thomas Wrongly Diagnosed His Case.

PORTCHESTER, N. Y., March 14.—Nicholas Evanco, proprietor of the Evanconian Hotel, in this village, had an arm amputated at Bellevue Hospital, New York City, Monday, as the result of an alleged wrong diagnosis by Dr. A. P. Thomas.

The family of the injured man claim that as soon as Evanco was able to leave the hospital he was told by Dr. Thomas that he had a bone in his arm, and that he was suffering from a disease which would require the amputation of the arm.

Evanco, while being the proprietor of the hotel, was also foreman over a large number of Hungarians in Abend-moth's laundry. For a long time Evanco complained of a soreness in his right arm. It continued to pain him until Dr. Thomas was called in to attend him.

The doctor immediately diagnosed the case as one of rheumatism, and accordingly treated him for that complaint. Evanco got no relief from this treatment, and several prominent physicians were called in. They pronounced his trouble blood-poisoning, and ordered Evanco removed to Bellevue Hospital.

It is claimed that the treatment Evanco had received had so aggravated his blood-poisoning that it was impossible to save his arm. The arm was amputated, but Evanco is still in a precarious condition.

ALL PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Bijou and Manhattan Hotel Proprietors Arraigned in Court.

John J. Clark and Patrick Byrnes, proprietors and managers of the Bijou and Manhattan hotels, were arraigned in court to-day on charges of violating the game laws. At the dinner of the Real Estate Board yesterday the men included branded quail. As this is the season when the statutes require quail to be unimpaired, the National Protective Game, Bird and Fish Association and the Illinois Sportsmen's Association have sworn out warrants for Mr. Clark and Mr. Byrnes.

The penalty is $25 a bird, and as at least sixty people sat down to the dinner, it is believed that the men are something like $1,500. Mr. Byrnes says he served quail instead of quail.

HAD QUAIL OUT OF SEASON.

Chicago Landlord Charged with Violating the Game Law.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, March 14.—Manager Bemis, of the Hotel Richelieu, has come in conflict with game laws. At the dinner of the Real Estate Board yesterday the men included branded quail. As this is the season when the statutes require quail to be unimpaired, the National Protective Game, Bird and Fish Association and the Illinois Sportsmen's Association have sworn out warrants for Mr. Clark and Mr. Byrnes.

The penalty is $25 a bird, and as at least sixty people sat down to the dinner, it is believed that the men are something like $1,500. Mr. Byrnes says he served quail instead of quail.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN CLYDE.

(By Associated Press.)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 14.—For the first time in forty years the Republicans elected their ticket at the charter election held in the village of Clyde, Warren County, yesterday.

DEMOCRATS WIN IN DANVILLE.

(By Associated Press.)

DANVILLE, N. Y., March 14.—The town meeting yesterday was held tonight and won by the Democrats on a majority ranging from ten to fifty.

"CAMMEYER" STAMPED ON A SHOE.

MEANS STANDARD OF MERIT.

6th Ave., Cor. 20th St.

$4.00 Shoe for $2.50.

LADIES' Genuine French PATENT LEATHER BUTTON BOOTS,

$2.50 Per Pair.

Not shop-soiled nor in broken sizes, but in every size and width.

EVERY PAIR WARRANTED EQUAL TO ANY $4.00 SHOE IN THE MARKET.

I HAVE NO AGENCIES OR BRANCH STORES. MY SHOES CANNOT BE PURCHASED OF ANY OTHER DEALER.

A. J. GAMMEYER, 6th Ave., cor. 20th St.

HELD UP THE ACCUSER.

Graves Had Demanded the Arrest of His Partner's Robber.

Detectives Michaels and Dale, of the West Forty-seventh street squad, appeared at the Yorkville Court this morning with two colored men, named Daniel Crump, twenty-eight years old, of 15-12 Downing street, and Edward T. Clark, streets, aged forty-three, of 25 Clark street, whom they charged with having robbed another colored man at a ball of the Charles Sumner Pioneer Corps, Feb. 22 last. The victim was Charles H. Crump, a dry-goods salesman. They were married on March 31, 1892, and have one child, a son, named Joseph Hanley, a Junior at 238 West Twenty-eighth street, and William Livingston, testified that Luitgen had been living at the above address with another woman, who passed as his wife. The decree was granted.

STUDENT THIEF CAUGHT.

Prize Scholar and Record-Breaker Found Riffing Pockets.

CLAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., March 14.—Church circles here are agitated by a sensation at the Y. M. C. A. Building. For nearly two years the members have been suffering at the hands of a thief, who regularly went through their clothes in the dressing-rooms during the hours of gymnasium drills. Large sums of money and valuables were frequently taken, and all efforts to capture the robber proved futile.

A secret watch was finally kept on the dressing-rooms, and last night, while about forty students of Clawfordsville College were in the hall, the thief, who is a Freshman, was captured in the act of rifling pockets.

Shule is a prize student, standing at the head of his class, and is an officer in the college Y. M. C. A. He also holds the State record for several athletic events. He has acknowledged the crimes and will be expelled from college.

EVANCO LOST HIS ARM.

Says Dr. Thomas Wrongly Diagnosed His Case.

PORTCHESTER, N. Y., March 14.—Nicholas Evanco, proprietor of the Evanconian Hotel, in this village, had an arm amputated at Bellevue Hospital, New York City, Monday, as the result of an alleged wrong diagnosis by Dr. A. P. Thomas.

The family of the injured man claim that as soon as Evanco was able to leave the hospital he was told by Dr. Thomas that he had a bone in his arm, and that he was suffering from a disease which would require the amputation of the arm.

Evanco, while being the proprietor of the hotel, was also foreman over a large number of Hungarians in Abend-moth's laundry. For a long time Evanco complained of a soreness in his right arm. It continued to pain him until Dr. Thomas was called in to attend him.

The doctor immediately diagnosed the case as one of rheumatism, and accordingly treated him for that complaint. Evanco got no relief from this treatment, and several prominent physicians were called in. They pronounced his trouble blood-poisoning, and ordered Evanco removed to Bellevue Hospital.

It is claimed that the treatment Evanco had received had so aggravated his blood-poisoning that it was impossible to save his arm. The arm was amputated, but Evanco is still in a precarious condition.

ALL PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Bijou and Manhattan Hotel Proprietors Arraigned in Court.

John J. Clark and Patrick Byrnes, proprietors and managers of the Bijou and Manhattan hotels, were arraigned in court to-day on charges of violating the game laws. At the dinner of the Real Estate Board yesterday the men included branded quail. As this is the season when the statutes require quail to be unimpaired, the National Protective Game, Bird and Fish Association and the Illinois Sportsmen's Association have sworn out warrants for Mr. Clark and Mr. Byrnes.

The penalty is $25 a bird, and as at least sixty people sat down to the dinner, it is believed that the men are something like $1,500. Mr. Byrnes says he served quail instead of quail.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN CLYDE.

(By Associated Press.)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 14.—For the first time in forty years the Republicans elected their ticket at the charter election held in the village of Clyde, Warren County, yesterday.

DEMOCRATS WIN IN DANVILLE.

(By Associated Press.)

DANVILLE, N. Y., March 14.—The town meeting yesterday was held tonight and won by the Democrats on a majority ranging from ten to fifty.

56 Pages THE 56 Pages

SUNDAY WORLD'S

EASTER NUMBER

Out Next Sunday!

Ward McAllister writes on "Easter in Society."

A Charming Easter Carol by the Composer of "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Easter Bonnets That Will Be Worn by the Best Known and Best Dressed New York Women.

A Page for Men—Correct Things in Hats, Gloves, Shoes, Clothing, Collars, Neckties, Jewelry, Canes and Whiskers.

STRANGER THAN FICTION.

Marvellous Detective Story of Real Life, which Discounts Anything in the Writings of Poe, Gaboriau or Conan Doyle.

AN ALLURING FRAUD EXPOSED BY NELLIE BLY.

FOUR PAGES OF Original Humor and Colored Cartoons.

NEXT SUNDAY'S WORLD.

Notify Your Newsdealer in Advance.

ANOTHER BARGAIN THIS WEEK.

This Antique Oak Chiffonier, 5 drawers, heavy brass or oxidized handles, best make, for $4.75.

$4.75, Actual Value $12.00.

DON'T PASS THIS CHIFFONIER.

It is the most useful article for home use, and was never before offered at so low a price. Come and see it; we want everybody to have one.

Spring Stock Now Complete

We carry the largest stock of Furniture and Carpets in New York, at the Lowest Prices, for CASH OR CREDIT.

Brass and White Enamelled Bedsteads, California Folding Beds, $8.95.

Refrigerators and Baby Carriages.

Carpets, Mattings and Rugs.

Aubusson Carpets, worth 65c., 29c.

50 Rolls $1.00 Brussels at 60c.

Royal Sultan Rugs, 36x72, 98c.

$5.00 Moquette Rugs, 57x50, $1.00.